THE CHILDREN'S ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH NETWORK (CEHN) WELCOMES THE SUBMISSION OF POSTER ABSTRACTS FOR CEHN 2017.

The 2017 Children's Environmental Health Translational Research Conference: New Challenges (CEHN 2017) will be held at the Key Bridge Marriott in Arlington, VA just outside of Washington, DC on April 5-7. CEHN 2017 will highlight cutting edge science in the fields of epidemiology, cell and molecular biology, genetics, toxicology and other pediatric environmental health disciplines, with special focus on emerging/new issues or children's health challenges.

With an expected attendance of 200 pediatric environmental health professionals from around the globe, CEHN 2017 offers the optimal forum for scientific, clinical, and public health experts to:

- Highlight exciting findings and research methods
- Network with colleagues and develop cross-cutting collaborations
- Participate in research translation to practice, public health, and policy discussions

This is a late-breaking call for individual abstracts for poster presentations. An evening poster reception on April 6, 2017 will provide a fun, relaxing atmosphere to discuss your research and facilitate a lively exchange of new ideas.

Carefully review the opportunities and guidelines listed within this Call for Abstracts. Submit your abstract electronically at <http://bit.ly/PosterCEHN2017> by 12:00 pm ET, February 24, 2017.

February 27 By 11:59 pm ET	Acceptance notification for abstracts are sent via email.

Poster presentations involve display of a poster from Thursday, April 6 through Friday, April 7, 2017. The presenting author of the poster abstract is expected to be physically present at the poster display to answer questions during the Poster Reception on April 6, 2017, from 5:00 pm – 6:30 pm.

Conference Fee—By submitting an abstract you indicate that you understand and agree to register and pay for the conference. CEHN is unable to waive registration fees and is unable to provide travel and lodging support. Please review the conference registration fees.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

Deadline: February 24, 2017, 12:00 pm (noon) ET

Abstracts that do not meet all of the specifications listed below will be automatically rejected:

- An individual may be the presenting author on a maximum of two abstracts.
- There can be no more than 10 authors per abstract.
- Abstracts must be submitted at <http://bit.ly/PosterCEHN2017>. No emailed, mailed, or faxed submissions will be accepted. Character limits apply.
- Trade or brand names may not be used in abstract titles and are limited to one reference within the body.
- Supplemental information, such as references, tables, figures or any other graphics are not permitted, and must not be emailed, mailed, or faxed.
- Case reports will not be considered.

Abstracts will not be accepted for presentation if they fail to reflect acceptable scientific methodology, if the data or statistical analyses do not justify the conclusions, if they lack sufficient scientific or clinical merit, or if no data are included. All abstracts are peer-reviewed; notice of acceptance will be sent to the contact author via email before February 28, 2017.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION PROCESS

All abstracts must be submitted electronically, in English, via the online portal <http://bit.ly/PosterCEHN2017>. Online submission will open February 12, 2017.

The final deadline to submit is 12:00 pm ET on February 24, 2017; the deadline will not be extended under any circumstances.

Authors are encouraged to submit abstracts early. You will be able to revise your abstract until the close time and date of 12:00 pm (noon) ET, February 24, 2017.

Please review your work for accuracy; abstracts will be printed exactly as submitted. Due to the high number of abstracts anticipated, copyediting of your abstract will not be permitted.

In order to withdraw an abstract, the author of the abstract must provide written notification to Kristie Trousdale (kristiet@cehn.org) by March 5, 2017. No substitutions will be allowed; only withdrawals.

The CEHN 2017 Advisory Committee will offer two Junior Investigator awards for poster presenters.

Selection of award winners will be based on the novelty of the work presented, methodological rigor, clarity of presentation, and potential to influence public health or environmental policy, clinical practice, or future research.
